Subject: Relocation Plan for “Monument Shopping Center” Redevelopment Project

Date: August 26, 2002

The Redevelopment Agency of the City of Fremont is pursuing the redevelopment of the Irvington Unified Site (more commonly known as “Monument Shopping Center”). The site is generally bounded by Fremont Boulevard, Bay Street, Trimboli Way and Irvington Avenue. In planning for the project, the Agency has retained the firm of Pacific Relocation Consultants to prepare the Relocation Plan for tenants and owner-occupants who would be displaced by the project.

The Relocation Plan has now been completed and is available for review. The Agency solicits and welcomes your written comments regarding the Relocation Plan. Language translation services are available upon request. The Plan is available for review at the following locations:

City of Fremont Development Services Center 39550 Liberty Street ▪ Available at Office of Neighborhoods reception desk (second floor)	Fremont Main Library 2400 Stevenson Boulevard ▪ Available at Reference Desk
Irvington Community Center 41885 Blacow Road ▪ Available at reception desk	City of Fremont City Hall 3300 Capitol Avenue ▪ Available at City Clerk’s Office

The Board of the Redevelopment Agency, which is also the City Council, is scheduled to consider adopting this Relocation Plan at its October 8, 2002 Board meeting. As per California Redevelopment Law, the Agency is hereby providing sufficient time for the occupants to review this Plan, and comment on it or ask questions. Pacific Relocation Consultants will respond to all submitted comments and questions, and incorporate them into the final Plan to be considered for adoption by the Redevelopment Agency. Comments are due into Pacific Relocation Consultants by September 27, 2002.
